Calibers:	.38 Special (9x29 R, .38 S&W Colt Special)	Category: B1

Similar to the HW-357 in all respects except for chambering, the HW-38 is designed to fire the .38 Special cartridge. Shorter-barreled models are often fitted with rubber grips, but 6-inch barrel models typically have wooden grips. The top of the barrel has a sighting rib. The HW-38T Target is also similar to the HW-357T, but fires .38 Special ammunition, and has an adjustable rear sight and adjustable top slide. It usually has a walnut grip.
